

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

John Baklios, 613 S. Kedzie av., victim of holdup men. $10.

Robber entered restaurant of George Mitchell, 59 E. 16th st. Ordered pie, then held up the manager and employes with gun. Got $20. Ate his pie and escaped.

Fireman Alex Hofer, 2727 W. Congress st., Truck Co. No. 5, was today married to Miss Anna Pfeiffer, 1620 String st., whom he saved from fire in August Turner building last summer.

Five women were arrested in raid on disorderly house, 1760 S. Wabash av. Kitty Miller booked as keeper.

In nine precincts of 2d ward on recount of November election for state's attorney, Cunnea, Soc., gained 29 votes; Hoyne, Dem., incumbent, lost 28 votes, and Rinaker, Rep., gained 8 votes.

Frank Schafer, 56 W. Van Buren st., entered Clark street station and announced he had scarlet fever. Everyone beat it. Taken to hospital.

Hassan Sina held to grand jury, charged with murder of Awle Abdul, who was slain in coffee house, 466 N. Halsted st., Jan. 6.

Miss Lillian Stanley, actress, 4210 Grand blvd., meant to take headache medicine. Got poison. May recover.

Sam Ttesta, 450 N. Center av., internally hurt when his wagon was struck by freight train.

Body believed to be that of Harry Goldman, 2719 N. Halsted st., found with bullet wound over right temple under Met. "L" road structure at rear of 318 S. Paulina st. Had revolver. Believed suicide.

Mrs. Kate Corby, 69, 46 E. Oak st., fell dead while kneeling in her pew in Holy Name Cathedral during mass early today. Heart disease.

J. E. Ryan, candidate for Municipal Court judge, prepared today to go before city clerk and demand that a certificate of election be issued to him.

Robbers entered home of Wm. Manson, 5228 S. Park av. Got $600 in jewelry and $60 cash.

Amos McIntosh, negro, held up by two negroes. Got $4.

Ernest Martin, owner of bakery, 452 W. 26th st., arrested, charged with receiving stolen property.

Israel Schwartz, 18, Russian tailor, 1502 W. 13th st., suicide. Rope. Despondent because he couldn't find work.

Negro robber entered room occupied by Miss May Seymour and, after making her get out of bed, robbed her of her jewelry. She lives at Hotel Bristol, 216 E. 31st st.

Purse snatcher got purse of Mrs. Ed Jonathan, 814 Montrose av. Got $10 and gold chain.

R. Porter, 3128 Osgood st., and Peter Cronin, alias Malone, 814 W. Madison st., held to grand jury, charged with robbery.

Harry Lee, 3147 Princeton av., foreman, seriously burned when short circuit was caused with his